Susan Acker (Nellie, Marlene, and Others) - Susan is thrilled to perform in her first Theatre in Hamlin Park production! You may have seen her on the Aurora Players stage as the neurotic Christine Gorman in Rumors or in one of many locally written one-act plays. Off stage, Susan enjoys long road trips to see silly stuff, with her beloved dogs and singing badly but with great enthusiasm, to the dismay of her neighbors.

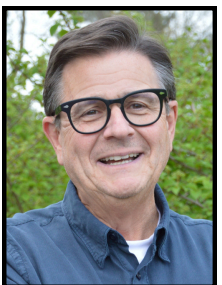

Alexa Gioia (Abilene, Lolly, and Others) - Alexa Gioia is honored to be performing in The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane in her first production with Theatre in Hamlin Park. Alexa has recently graduated from Canisius University and has performed in many plays and musicals for around 15 years. Alexa's recent roles include Mrs. Hubbard in Murder on the Orient Express and Aunt March in Little Women for the Canisius University Little Theatre. In her free time, Alexa enjoys birdwatching and hiking.

Ryan Harrington (Bryce, Lawrence, and Others) - Ryan is excited to act in The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane! This is his first production with Theatre in Hamlin Park, though he previously performed with Aurora Players in Christmas at Pemberley. Offstage, Ryan just graduated from Canisius University and is preparing for his first semester of law school at the University at Buffalo. He would like to thank the directors, cast, crew, and everyone else who made this miraculous show possible!

Lanie Shannon (Traveler, Pellegrina, and Others) - This is Lanie Shannon's fourth production with Theatre in Hamlin Park, including Baloo in The Jungle Book and Mrs. Whatsit in A Wrinkle in Time. She performed live theatre across New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, and Tennessee, in Paw Island audiobooks and on-screen in "Full Body Wag" and PAX TV's "It's a Miracle." Her favorite roles include Golde in Fiddler on the Roof and Claudius in Hamlet. Lanie most recently appeared in Towne Players's The Outsider as Louise.

Mark Tramont (Bull, Lucius, and Others) - Mark Tramont is thrilled to make his first appearance with Theatre in Hamlin Park. Other credits include Robert in Lake Plains Players production of Proof, Greg in AR Gurney's Sylvia with Kenton Players. His most recent appearances have been in Almost Maine and Death of a Salesman. Mark is the CFO of St. Mary's High School in Lancaster and co-owner with his wife Eileen of AuNaturel Mastectomy Boutique in Amherst. They reside in East Amherst.

Charlie Von Adler (Edward Tulane) - Charlie is thrilled to make her Aurora Players debut this summer! A proud EAHS Theatre alum, she toured from 2019-2024 with Missoula Children's Theatre and Bright Star Touring Theatre. She simultaneously directed and performed full-scale musicals with up to 65 children in less than one week (Pinocchio, Rumpelstiltskin) and starred in numerous two-person improvisational plays for all ages (Maximus Mars, FrankenSTEM). Many thanks to Charlotte's teachers, friends, and father for their unwavering support!

Brian Tabak (Director) - Brian's heart has been a quiver since he learned that he'd have the opportunity to make his Aurora Players' directing debut with Theatre in Hamlin Park's production of The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane ...so much so, in fact, that his cardiologist is growing concerned. For much of the 2010s, Brian was the Creative Director for WNY's longest-running improv program, CSz Buffalo, and during his time there he performed in more than 1,100 ComedySportz (CSz's flagship competitive improv show) matches. In the last decade or so, Brian has slowly shifted his focus to scripted theatre, appearing on stages scattered about WNY. He can frequently be seen at NRTG's Ellicott Creek Playhouse (The Creature in Young Frankenstein, Garry in Noises Off, and Charles in Blithe Spirit among others), was recently seen as Jonathan in Rocking Horse Productions' The Play That Goes Wrong and Andy Dufresne in The Shawshank Redemption at Desiderio's, and made his Aurora Players debut in 2023's One Man, Two Guvnors.

Carolyn Quigley Mazierski (Assistant Director) - Carolyn is thrilled to return to East Aurora after a 15 year hiatus, with her last role being Vibrata in A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum. Favorite productions include Annie Get Your Gun (Annie), Noises Off (Dottie), The Sound of Music (Maria), and directing The Drowsy Chaperone at NRTG. In her "free" time, Carolyn is a teacher, a proud mom to Will & Mia, and a happy wife of Bob. Shout out to friend and director, Brian, for bringing her along on Edward's "adventure."

Danielle Rennicks (Stage Manager) - Danielle is excited to be stage managing for Theatre in Hamlin Park! She has previously worked with Rocking Horse Productions as the stage manager for Steel Magnolias, Frankenstein, You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown, Dial M for Murder, and Brighton Beach Memoirs. She was assistant stage manager for The Odd Couple and stage crew for Murder on the Orient Express and It's A Wonderful Life. Danielle also plays bass clarinet with the Buffalo Wind Symphony and Orchard Park Symphony Orchestra. She enjoys playing video games with her supportive husband, Dan, and spending time with their 2 cats.

EDWARD TULANE'S JOURNEY TO EAST AURORA

The star of the show has gone on a miraculous journey to reach us. Our Edward dolls (yes, plural — you see, just like other diva actors, we need to give our dolls plenty of time off to recuperate between shows) were handmade in Colorado especially for a production of Edward Tulane by Merely Players in Durango. After their December run, the Edwards made the 1,500 mile journey to Florida, where they appeared in a March production with The Story House in Niceville. After closing night in The Sunshine State, they traveled another 1,200 miles north to East Aurora to star in our production in July & August.

Charles Ford (Edward Tulane Doll Designer) - Charles is a master backstage technician and the Technical Director of Merely Players in Durango, Colorado. An avid puppeteer, mask-maker, make-up artist, robotics engineer, and special effects designer, he has designed dozens of sets for a variety of theatrical genres. Charles' world travels have seen him climbing to the top of Machu Picchu, swimming with sea turtles, and riding a camel. He has tried to use inspiration from the joy and exhilaration of travel to create theatre magic.

JoAnn Nevils (Edward Tulane Doll Costumer) - JoAnn has been designing and stitching costumes most of her life. Merely Players in Durango, Colorado has been her prime focus for the last 30 years. Every show is memorable, with each costume being created with love and care. One of her goals is to make the actor feel comfortable and special. Favorite shows and costumes are Hecate from Macbeth, Lord Farquaad from Shrek and the Scarecrow and Wizard from our punk version of The Wizard of Oz. Many thanks to my children, Bucky and Janette, for believing in me and to Mona and Charles for being my friends.

Guests can bring their own lawn seating and enjoy concessions available inside the Roycroft Pavilion. We Have a Seat for You!

Through a generous donation from The Scott Bieler Family Foundation, we are preparing to install brand-new seating in our auditorium – and we're inviting you to become a visible part of this exciting transformation.

With a gift of $300, you can purchase an engraved brass commemorative plaque that will be displayed for the next ten years – the equivalent of $30 per year – on the seat of your choice. Whether you choose to honor a loved one, celebrate your own passion for the arts, or leave a message of inspiration for others, your plaque will be a meaningful tribute and a proud part of our theater's history.

All of the proceeds from your donation will support other improvements to our theater home, including fresh paint, newly refinished floors, and new carpeting. Within a week of purchasing your seat plaque, a volunteer from Aurora Players will contact you to discuss which seat you would like to choose for your commemorative message(s) and to confirm your engraving. Seats will be allocated on a first come, first served basis in order to be fair to all.

Join us in shaping the future of our theater – one seat, one memory at a time.

Your donation may be tax-deductible; please consult your tax advisor. Aurora Players is a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

Please note: Individual show seating is not guaranteed in seats bearing your plaque(s).
